A simple line drawing of a young boy with blonde hair, wearing a red and blue striped long-sleeved shirt and blue shorts. He is in a dynamic pose, leaning forward with his right leg extended back as if he has just kicked a ball. His left leg is bent and he is stepping forward. His arms are outstretched to the sides for balance. To his left is a round, orange ball with a grid pattern, resembling a soccer ball. The entire illustration is enclosed within a black rectangular border.
